THE YOUTH OF TODAY ARE

THE LEADERS OF TOMORROW

The background of the page features faint, sepia-toned illustrations. On the left, a vertical strip shows various school activities: students in a classroom, a student at a desk, and a group of students. On the right, a large illustration of the Statue of Liberty stands prominently. At the bottom, a banner with the text "THE YOUTH OF TODAY ARE THE LEADERS OF TOMORROW" is flanked by decorative elements like pine branches and a shield with stars.

FOREWORD

We hope that this annual will be one of your most cherished possessions, recalling pleasant memories, of your school days at Franklin County Training School, of enjoyable associations, and of progress made during the school year 1942-1943.

This book represents the first annual published at Franklin County Training School, and we hope that it will inspire each Staff or each Senior Class in the future to continue its publication.

The staff wishes to extend its appreciation to its sponsor, Miss M.R.Perrin, the principal, Mr. C.A.Harris, Mrs. Margaret Evans, Mrs.M.B.Payton, Miss S.E.Yarborough, and to the other members of the faculty, student body and community who have contributed in making this year book possible.

CLASS POEM

" A TRIBUTE TO OUR SCHOOL "

Slowly, slowly four years hath passed us by
Until dear school we have to from thee part.
Treasured with an unavailing cry,
Stifled beneath a wearisome aching heart.

Dear classmates, sorrow now befalls us
As we leave our Alma Mater kind friendly and true;
To now fulfill our work to us made precious
And keep in mind thy counsel, our promises too.

Tribute to you, dear faculty, we pay;
Who fostered in us worthy ideals to defend
By your continuous effort every day
Has fitted us to face society's trend.

And now for thee, dear F.C.T.S.,
We lay our highest tribute on thy chest.

Jacob Williams

JOURNEY'S END

In the fall of 1939 a group of one hundred and twenty-eight Freshmen entered F.C.T.S. to commence a long journey toward graduation. This was the largest group to be enrolled in a Freshman class at F.C.T.S.. The class was divided into two divisions. Miss Hill was made sponsor of the "A" division, and Mr. Holden was made sponsor of the "B" division. The "A" division elected Thaddeus Hayes as president, and the "B" division elected Clarence Evans.

The outstanding event of the Freshman year was the Freshman Declamatory Contest. Each division was represented by three speakers and the winner was Dorothy Ellis who left the class in the Junior year to reside in New York state. The class was also proud of the fact that it won first prize in the annual Big Broadcast of that year.

At commencement perfect attendance certificates were received by Harold Green and Lottie Wright. Bernice Johnson and Emma Johnson, who were attending Mobane High School at that time, also received perfect attendance certificates.

Sixty-six of the one hundred and twenty-eight returned to F.C.T.S. to begin the second mile of their journey through F.C.T.S.. Mrs. Strickland and Jacob Williams were elected presidents of their respective divisions. The class gained a great deal of recognition in athletics in that the Sophomore class had more representatives in this activity than any other class in the school. Mozella Thomas and Louise Harris joined the Public Speaking Club. Harold Green represented the class on the Student Council and Jacob Williams became a member of the staff of the Franklin Reporter.

Though no records were broken during the Sophomore year, that year gave to the class the wisdom needed for entrance into a Junior year at F.C.T.S.. Mrs. Strickland was elected president of the class.

The outstanding activities of the Junior year were:

The three act comedy, "Sunbonnet Jane Of Sycamore Lane "; and the Junior-Senior Banquet. Members of the class were well represented in all extra-curricular activities.

At the end of the Junior year the class lost one of its sponsors, Mr. G.V. Holden, to the armed forces.

It is sad to state that the class entered the Senior year minus the dignity that the instructors had tried to instill within its members. There was not the usual gaiety at seeing old friends as so many were trying to work conditions off. For extra-activities the class rushed to the Franklin Reporter. This being true, it is safe to say that the success of that paper this year is due to the members of the Senior class.

Clarence Evans was elected president of the class and also president of the Student Council. Jacob Williams served his second year as editor of the Franklin Reporter. Harold Green achieved the all time perfect attendance record of the class: for five years he has been neither absent or tardy.

The main events of the year were: The Big Broadcast; the Senior play, "Dying To Live"; The Junior Senior Picnic; and of course Commencement.

The class decided to leave the school a number of small gifts instead of giving one big gift. Some of these gifts were: painting the Senior class room; a large United States flag for the flag pole; and a catalogue file for the library.

Now that the class has reached its journey's end, it can look back over the four long years it has covered with pride. While the class makes no claim to unusual greatness, it feels that it has played its part at F.C.T.S.. And, in the future when others wish to judge the merits of the class of '43, judge it by its motto -- "Let Us Be Judged By Our Deeds".

Justine Foster, Class Historian

DIARY

September 3 - Seventy jaunty Juniors entered F.C.T.S. with a will and determination to become Seniors next year. ' Notably missing was Mary Willie Johnson, who left to live in Washington, D.C..

September 23 - Our class was organized and officers were elected. We were off to a fine start.

October 29 - Spooks! Witches! Goblins! Ghosts! You guessed it! The Junior Hallowe'en Party. A great time was had by all.

November 24 - "Let's Bring New Glory"--- Our class won first prize in the "Big Broadcast".

December 4 - The class social at Zelma Anderson's. Oh! what a time we had!

December 18 - Christmas vacation began. Need I say more?

January 4 - We returned from vacations with exams on ~~our~~ minds.

January 18 - Exams over, we could breathe easily again.

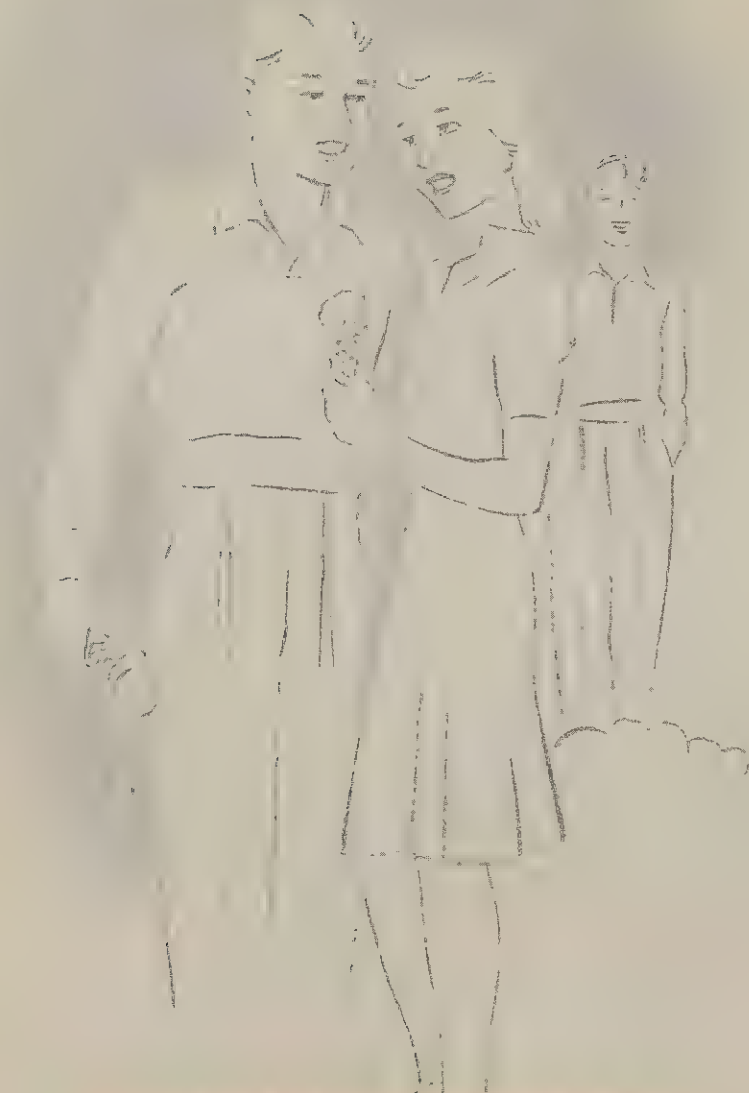

April 12 - Edward Arrendell, our president, starred in "Elmer and the Lovebug"

April 15 - Junior-Senior Banquet date, but, Uncle Sam decided that rationing and banquets do not mix.

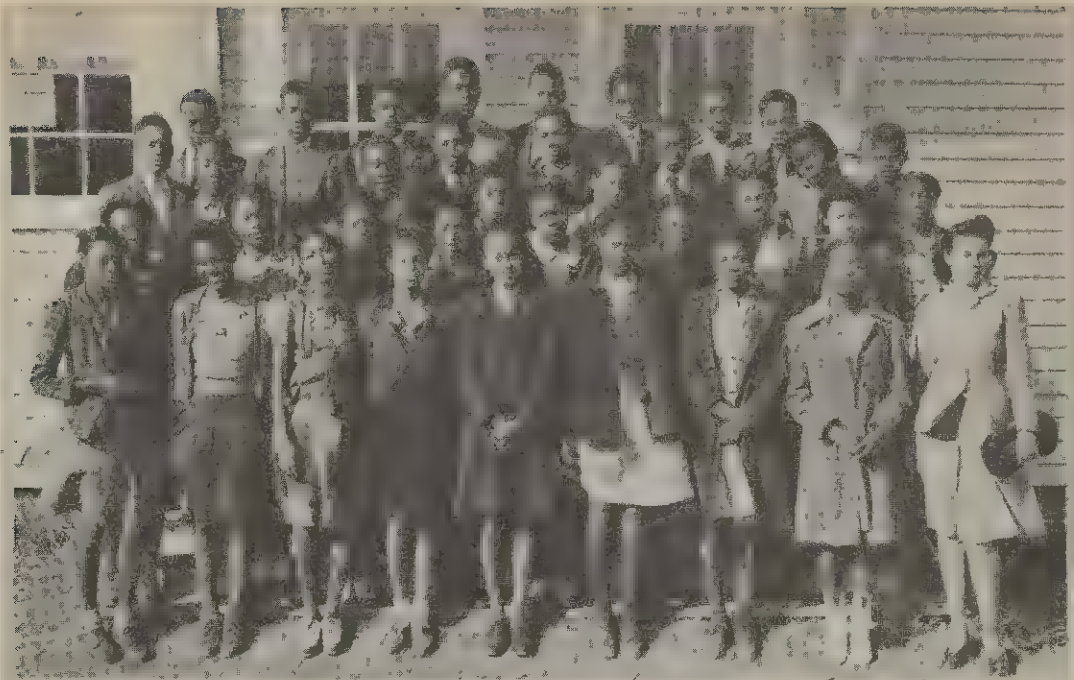

April 27 - Junior-Senior Picnic. I regret to say that no Juniors or Seniors were lost.

April 30 - School closed. Though only a few of the seventy who started will become Seniors, none of us will forget our Junior year at F.C.T.S.

CLASS HISTORY

"A" DIVISION

Another year has passed, and we have completed the second mile of our high school journey. During our Freshman year we learned many things, but, this year has added much to our store of experiences and achievements.

During the school year, 1942-1943, many of us participated in the school's extra-curricular activities. Listed below are the activities in which we participated:

Student Council - Eleanor Murphy, Elizabeth Edgerton.

Basket Ball - Ina P. Williamson, Jessie Yarborough,
Eleanor Murphy, Samuel Hazelwood.

Football - James Macon, James Williamson.

Staff - Christine Evans, Eleanor Murphy, Ina Pearl
Williamson.

Press Club - Josephine Bryant, Robert Macon, Jessie
Yarborough, Samuel Hazelwood.

Other members of our class showed interest in soft ball, croquet, boxing and other sports.

Yet, extra-curricular activities were not the only things in which the members of our class were interested. James Macon, Robert Macon, Eleanor Murphy, James Moore and Christine Evans excelled in scholarship. We also have the honor of having Miss Franklin County Training School (Eleanor Murphy) as one of our members.

We end our school year with thirty-eight members. It is our hope that all of the thirty-eight will always be guided by our motto: "To Strive, To Seek, To Find, But, Not To Yield!"

Class Historian - Eleanor Murphy

"B" DIVISION

On the fifth of September nineteen forty-two
Nine and thirty girls and boys started anew.
Eight months of study, work and play
With a grand home-room teacher - Mr. Conway.

But ah! 'tis sad the news to tell;
Time took the teacher we loved so well.
There was a doleful look on every face,
But we knew he'd gone to a better place.

No! He's not dead, he just resigned,
We felt that his equal we could not find.
But time heals all things so they say,
Thus with Mrs. Payton we went our way.

We bought T.B. seals and war stamps, too,
For Uncle Sam our best to do.
To camp Thomas Southerland went to live,
Would that we had more than one boy to give.

Yet not all was loss and sadness and tears,
We had some fun and we got some cheers.
"Tuxedo Junction" we sang on the Big Broadcast,
Erskin Hawkins couldn't better it (so thought our class).

In the Reporter our literary hopes we realized,
And at our number of dramatists you'd be surprised.
In music our voices blend even now.
Pardon us, if we call our chapel program a "wow".

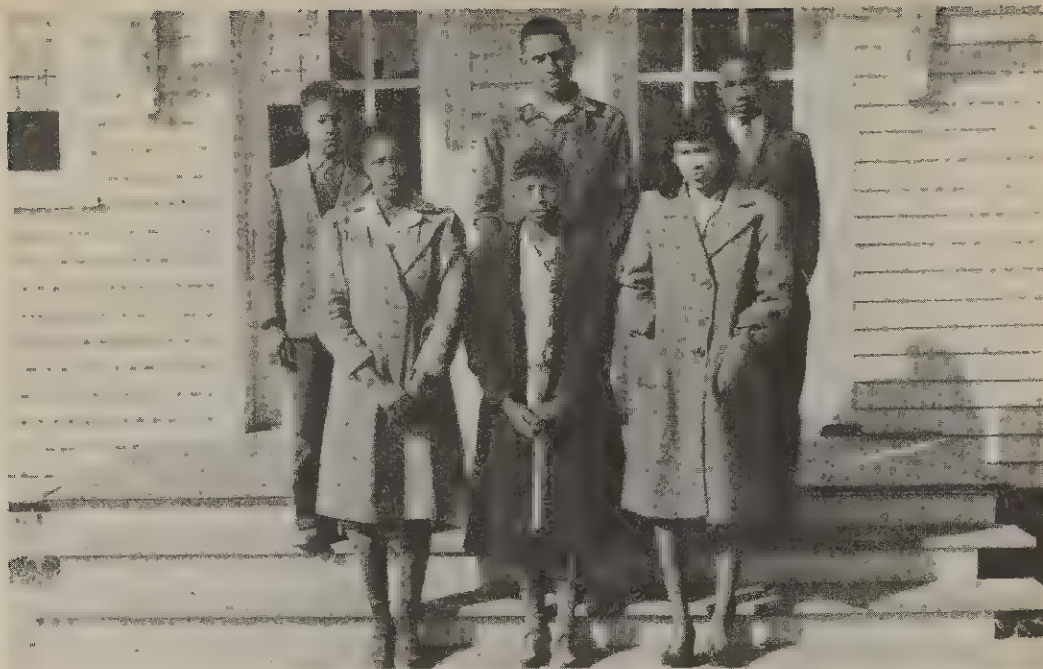

Time rolling by took many a classmate,
Berta Cooke entered matrimony's blissful state
Some stopped to farm, some changed schools,
All sooner or later will learn life's hard rules.

Activity brought games to whet the wit
Of singing and marching we've done our bit.
With class officers all was as should have been
A more capable group you've never seen.

But you've met them all and so we'll say
Good bye 'till we meet another day,
When we'll all be seniors and tell you more,
Wake up there! You! I heard you snore.

CLASS HISTORY

DIVISION 8 A

The class starting out with forty-six members has decreased in size to thirty-one. Nevertheless, those few have struggled on to the end of another school year.

During the year we have been very interested in improving our home-room. Some of the things that we have done are: calcimined the walls; bought a United States flag and a North Carolina flag; and purchased shades for the windows.

In as much as we have been studying the history of North Carolina, we have bought eight maps showing different regions, industries, and climatrical conditions in the state. We also have some excellent examples of natural resources in the class room. Our collection consists of different kinds of soil, trees, fish and minerals.

Our class superlatives are:

Most Cooperative - Onnie Massenburg
Most Courteous - Missouri Henderson
Most Dependable - Byrd Kelly
Most Industrious - Mary Anna Winston
Most Artistic - Ulysses Bullock
Most Ambitious - Maggie Thomas
Most Humorous - Spencer Massenburg
Most Sympathetic - Elizabeth Carr
Most Bashful - Annie Groon
Most Friendly - Henry E. Massenburg
The Best Athlete - Alphonso Harris
The Neatest - Vernell Alston
The Laziest - James O. Perry
The Smartest - Moarlon Davis
The Quietest - Everylane Lassiter
The Best Allround - Mamie Perry
The Noisiest Person - Gladys Cooley

Class Historian - Mary Anna Winston

DIVISION 8 B

Now that we have come to the end of the year we, the members of the Eighth Grade B class, would like to list here some of the things that we have accomplished during the school year.

We started out with forty-four in the class, but, for various reasons six of these have left us.

The first month we were busy getting acquainted and organized. As leaders of the class we chose Hazel Grace Thomas, president; Katie Bernice Leake, vice president; Mary L. Green, secretary; William P. Neal, treasurer; and Aileen Macon, reporter.

During the scrap iron drive the class worked hard to get in all of the scrap that could be found. We turned in over two thousand pounds of scrap, with Walter T. Branch turning in the greatest amount individually.

Katie Bernice Leake won second place in the contest sponsored for Miss F.C.T.S., and crowned the winner.

We also won a prize for our contribution to the Library drive. Our aim was always to do our best in those things in which we took a part.

Four of us, Mary L. Green, Hazel Thomas, Dorothy Perry and Ruby Lois King, sang the Marine Hymn on the Senior Big Broadcast.

On the fifth of February Florence Green, Dorothy Perry, Aileen Macon, and Katie B. Leake appeared on our chapel program, "Why We Celebrate Our Holidays".

Our sympathy went to Josephine Solomon who lost her mother in January.

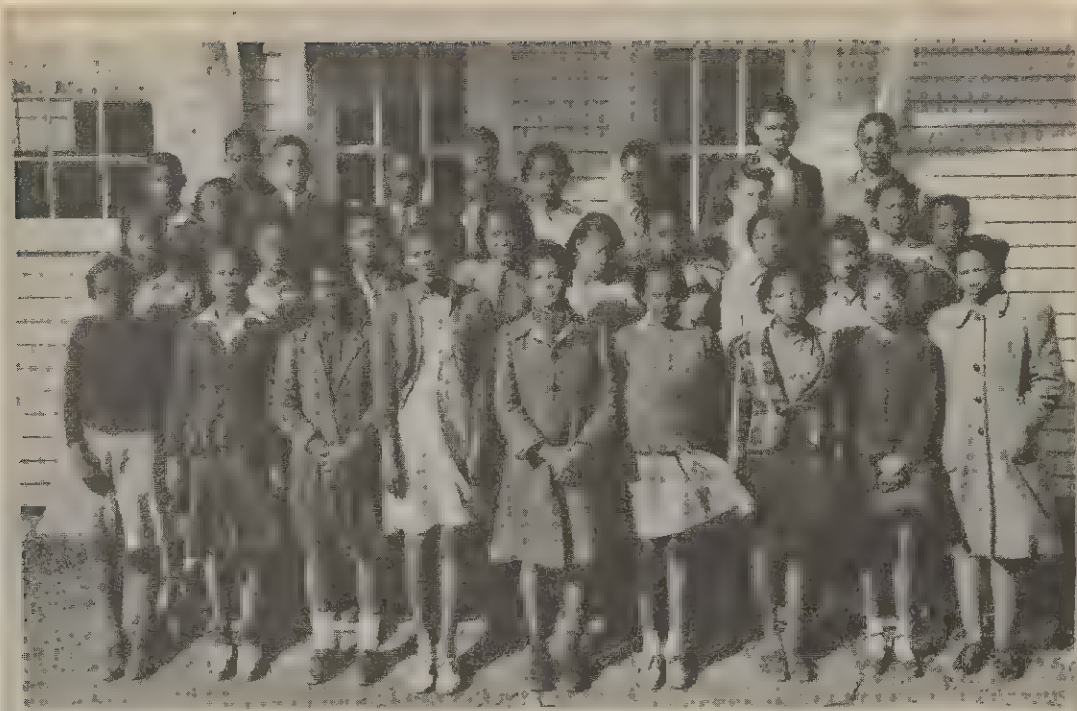

Some of us didn't study as we should have, consequently, our grades were not as they should have been. However, we are proud of Hazel Thomas, Katie B. Leake and Aileen Macon who made the Honor Roll every month this term.

Adieu until next September.

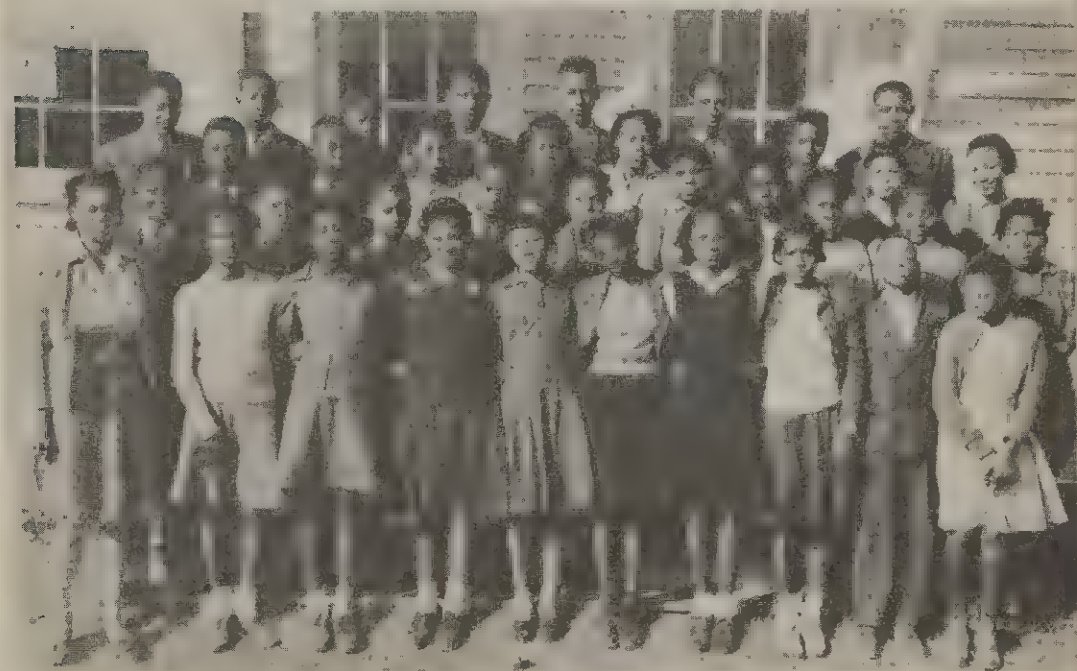

Aileen Macon, Class Historian

ACTIVITIES

HOME ECCENTRICS CLASS

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

The Home Economics Department has been very active during the 1942-1943 school term. A tea and exhibit were sponsored for the parents in November. Garments, cup towels, foot stools, covered furniture and a baby outfit, with a bassinet made from a clothes basket, were on display.

In February the department gave a two act comedy, "The Old District School". Hearty laughs were enjoyed by everyone.

Articles made by the department were on sale and display the last week of school.

The department also sponsored a sewing club called the Mademoiselle. The officers of this club were:

President	Iris Yarborough
Vice Pres.	Mary Brown
Secretary	Christine Evans
Asst. Sect.	Jeanotte Kelly
Treasurer	Lillian Taylor
Sponsor	Miss F. L. Spearman

The picture on the preceding page shows the tenth grade sewing class at work under the supervision of the Home Economics instructor, Miss F.L. Spearman.

TROOP 56

OFFICERS

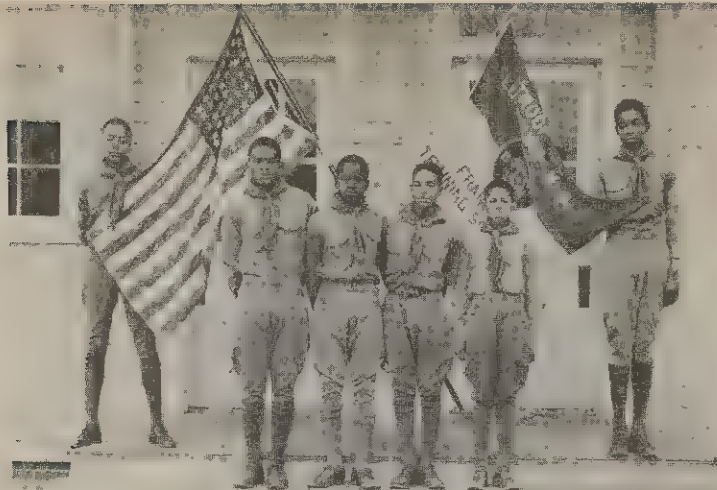

Patrol Leader	Arthur Alston
Scribe	Ezell Gibson
Scout Master	Mr. C.A. Harris

Troop 56 of Louisburg, North Carolina was organized in the fall of 1940. There were approximately twenty members under the supervision of Scout Master Hill. In 1941 Mr. Holden was Scout Master and about 15 boys became tenderfoot scouts. In 1942 Mr. C.A. Harris became Scout Master as a result of Mr. Holden's induction into the Army.

During the summer of 1943 the following scouts went to Camp Whispering Pines. Edward Arrendell, Charles Perry, William Foster and Ezell Gibson. Swimming was considered the best activity at the camp. Everyone had a grand time there.

This year, 1942-1943, the scouts have made more progress because war-time gives additional tasks. The scouts collected over two hundred and fifty pounds of scrap in the salvage drive. The Chief-of-Staff for this drive was Arthur Alston.

Recently the scout organization has been fortunate in having a Negro field Scout Master on the Occoneechee Council. In order to do that a certain amount of money was required. The scouts of Troop 56 were able to secure thirty dollars from the citizens of Louisburg. The scouts collecting the money were: Edward Arrendell, Ezell Gibson and Arthur Alston.
